Required Materials:
Pencil
Eraser
Scissors
Glue stick
Double sided tape (Walmart has some in their craft section. It's about ½" wide and the brand name is Forever In Time)
Ruler
Water container
Rag
Palette or paper plate
A black ball point pen
Size 01 black micron pigma pen
A size 05 black micron pigma pen or an ultra fine point sharpie
A white gel pen, or a Uniball Signo pen or a fine white Posca pen
Watercolor paint: quinacridone gold (golden yellow), phthalo blue (turquoise) quinacridone magenta (pink) sap green, red, ultramarine blue, paynes grey (colors similar to these are fine)
Staples has an inexpensive introductory Watercolor set that will do. It is Staedtler brand Watercolor paint. You get around 10 tubes for $10.
#4 and #8 round brush (make sure you have brushes that have good points)
1" flat brush
10" of ¼" ribbon
22" of embroidery floss to bind your book
A large needle with an eye big enough to put your embroidery floss through.
1" flat brush
1-11x15" piece of Canson 140lb. Watercolor paper (cut in half lengthwise so you end up with 2 - 5.5x15" pieces)
1- 6x10" piece of Canson 140lb. Watercolor paper
1 - 4x5" piece of Canson 140lb. Watercolor paper (we will use this to create a postcard word in class 3)
1 - 9x12" sheet of mixed media paper (cut in half lengthwise so you end up with 2 - 4.5x12" pieces)
1 - 9x12" sheet of mixed media paper (we will use this to make an envelope for our last page)
Bone folder
Awl or a nail you can poke through your book pages to bind it
A sheet of graphite paper(we are tracing our images onto our book pages with graphite paper or you can use a light table or the window as a light table)
A 20 pack of supertip crayola washable markers OR the Bright Palette set of Tombow dual tip markers 6 old book pages measuring 5.5x7.5" in size
A couple of sheets of scrap printer paper to use as a gluing surface
A couple of sheets of blank printer paper

If you do not want to go out and purchase large pads of Canson mixed media and cold pressed Watercolor paper, I can provide these for you at a cost of $2 for the mixed media paper and $3 for the Watercolor paper.

Optional Supplies: If you have them, bring them but I will be bringing mine to share so no need to go out and buy these items.
Bone folder
Score pal board
An awl
Light table