

Arlene Westen Evans

Multi-disciplinary artist Arlene Westen Evans brings a lifetime of teaching experience to her students. Her proficiencies include mixed-media collage, encaustic painting, image transfer, printmaking, papermaking, and fibre arts. She is perhaps best known for her bookbinding and book arts practice having taught numerous workshops throughout western Canada. Arlene graduated BFA Honors with Distinction from Alberta College of Art & Design after obtaining an earlier Visual Arts Diploma from Grant MacEwan College and a Tailoring Certificate from NAIT. Her combined disciplines culminated in a further degree from the University of Lethbridge (Honors with Great Distinction) in 2011 with a focus in Studio Arts. She has exhibited her work extensively and much of it has found home in various private collections worldwide.

