

Dannika Spady

My name is Dannika and I have been doing ceramic work for 10+ years! I love to create pieces on the wheel and then sculpt facial features into the piece. I add florals that are completely hand made and individually pinched too many of my pieces to add softness and depth to the work. Nature and flowers in particular bring so much joy and incorporating that into my work is one of my passions.

