

Tony Bounsall

Tony has been working professionally as a commercial photographer/graphic designer for thirty years and is a photo arts graduate (BAPA) from Ryerson Polytechnical Institute.

He is currently on the faculty of Vancouver Island School of Art, teaching collage, alternative photography, photo-based mixed media and printmaking. Tony has also taught classes and workshops at Coast Collective Art Centre, Denman Island Arts Centre, The Old School House Arts Centre, in Qualicum Beach, Metchosin International Summer School of the Arts (MISSA), and University of Victoria Continuing Studies, Camosun College Continuing Studies and Red Deer College Series Summer Arts School.

Tony is past President and participating board member of MISSA. In 2013, he received The Saanich Legacy Foundation grant for an artist-in-residence program for young adults called Holga Dreams and completed an artist-in-residency at Shawingan Lake School, in 2014.

Over the last 14 years, Tony has worked in several different mediums, including digital artwork, iphoneography, alternative based photography, mixed media, collage, printmaking and encaustics. His classes are innovative, relaxed and inclusive.

His work draws inspiration from his travels, technical drawings and illustrations, vintage photography, birds/crows, and his love of nature. He exhibits and sells his own fine art prints and mixed media work throughout North America.

www.tonybounsall.com

