

Stacey Cann

Stacey Elizabeth Cann is a multidisciplinary artist, writer, and PhD candidate working in Montreal, Quebec. She holds a BFA in Print Media from Alberta College of Art and Design, and an MA in Art Education from Concordia University. She is interested in making art accessible to the community and therefore teaches within the community as well as the university. She has shown her work at the International Print Centre New York, the Illingworth Kerr Gallery, and the Works Art and Design Festival among others.

