

Carolyn Fisher

Award-winning author/artist Carolyn Fisher has illustrated eight children's books, three of which she also wrote. Paul O. Zelinsky (himself a Caldecott-winning artist/author), writing for The New York Times Book Review called her book The Snow Show "...visually arresting...one of the most gloriously exuberant, inventive displays of computer-created art that I have ever seen in a picture book." Carolyn's book Summer Feet (with words by Sheree Fitch) won the David Booth Prize at the 2022 Canadian Children's Book Awards, as well as earning a place on CBC's Best Canadian Picture Book List and The Globe and Mail's 100 Best Books of 2020. Carolyn's book Cells: An Owner's Handbook was nominated for the Ontario Library Association's Silver Birch Express Award, and the Canadian Children's Book Centre's Norma Fleck Award. In 2021, Carolyn was chosen as a touring artist to visit schools and libraries across Canada for the prestigious Canadian Children's Book Week. Carolyn's art has been exhibited in the US and Canada. In addition to teaching at ACAD for seven years, Carolyn has talked to thousands of kids and adults in scores of libraries and schools about writing and art.
