

David Shkolny

David Shkolny was born on the fringes of the Canadian Shield in Pinawa, Manitoba and grew up in Fort Saskatchewan, Alberta. He has an Associate Diploma in Fine Arts from Red Deer College and a Bachelor of Fine Arts degree from the Nova Scotia College of Art and Design (1992). Currently maintaining a studio practice in Edmonton, Alberta, he has been teaching painting and drawing in Western Canada and Italy (2022-present) since 2001. David's artwork is in collections across Europe and North America as well as the Canada Council. Recent public commissions include the painting "Open Road" for Fort Saskatchewan City Hall as well as the pastel "Glenn's Canola" for the Kaye Edmonton Clinic.

